Support the 2026 Wetland Science Conference as a sponsor and/or exhibitor to realize all these benefits and more.

Since 1995, Wisconsin Wetlands Association's annual Wetland Science Conference has been providing a one-of-a-kind opportunity to share and promote the best wetland science, restoration, and management practices with the wetland and water community of Wisconsin and the Upper Midwest. More than 350 wetland professionals attend each year.

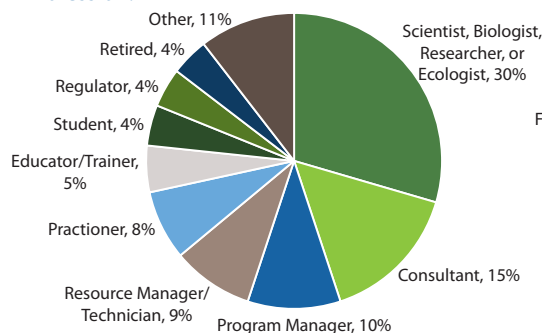

The 2026 conference will be held February 24-26 at the Ho-Chunk Hotel and Convention Center in Baraboo, Wisconsin.

You know the importance of wetland resources as well as the importance of an informed wetland community to protect and care for those resources. Your conference support demonstrates this leadership and makes this one-of-a-kind event possible.

More About our Audience

Who We Are

Wisconsin Wetlands Association is the nation's first and oldest statewide organization focused exclusively on wetland conservation. For more than 50 years, WWA has been working to protect our state's wetland resources through education, training, advocacy, and research on key issues that affect wetlands. Our award-winning programs effectively reach key target audiences, including local government staff, private landowners, land trusts, community decision-makers, and more. We are a 501(c)3 non-profit organization.

Please consider supporting Wisconsin Wetlands Association's 2026 Wetland Science Conference. Find more information about the conference: conference.wisconsinwetlands.org. Contact Katie Beilfuss at 608-413-5304 or programs@wisconsinwetlands.org if you have any questions or need more information.

“ This is a regional conference that has the quality of a national conference. It is a great opportunity to interact with wetland professionals. ”

Wisconsin Wetlands Association thanks the sponsors of our recent Wetland Science Conferences, including:
